Pulpit Fall. It was mentioned during last week's worship that the pulpit falls are of different colours and are changed according to the time of the year. Usually, the colour for All Saints Day, 1st November, is white. As 29th October is the nearest Sunday to All Saint's the fall has been changed accordingly and will remain there until next week when the annual bereavement service will be held in the church. Thereafter it will return to green, the colour for ordinary times of the year.

CrossReach. If you wish to order CrossReach Christmas cards & Calendars please see information on table at back of Church
